

Agnieszka Szpara

Agnieszka Szpara graduated from Warsaw School of Economics, the Advanced Management Program at IESE Business School University of Navarra and School of Public Health at the Institute of Occupational Medicine in Łódź. She has 20 years of experience in healthcare management including 15 years of experience in strategic management. From 1994 to 2009 she was professionally related with the development of Medcover Group in Central Europe, from 2000 as Chairman of the Management Board of Medcover in Poland.

From 2009 to 2013 she was the President of the Management Board of Continuum Care - the company which creates a system of specialized care for the elderly. Recently she has been the Managing Director of Care Experts, Medcover Group - a company that offers comprehensive care program for seniors and those who are no longer self-reliant.

She is a co-founder and, since 2002 has been the Vice-President of the Union of Private Healthcare Employers, an organization that affiliates major private companies that provide medical services. She is also the President of the Forum for Long-Term Care under the Union of Private Healthcare Employers as well as a policy adviser to the President of the Employers of Poland on seniors; a long-time consultant on healthcare market, who cooperates with institutions which are involved in financing its development.

She has sit on supervisory boards and is a member of the Group for Innovation of the Polish Academy of Sciences, established to promote quality improvement in healthcare. As part of the MBA in Health Care that operates at Lazarski University, she has been giving lectures on topics related to corporate governance and optimal management structures.